ALPHA OMEGA'S CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE HORSES & HORSEPOWER PARTY

Arriving at Alpha Omega's Cypress Stables for the Concourse d'Elegance viewing and morning party. I'm so excited. I've never attended this event and it sounds magical.

We were welcomed with the 2008 Dom Perignon Champagne. This event sure knows how to welcome guests at 8am!

All smiles in my happy place! Dom Perignon holds a special place in my heart as it was the first Maison I visited last fall on my Champagne media visits. Read more about my spectacular visit to Dom Perignon and my tasting with their winemaker on the blog.

Guests also enjoyed a few of the horses which are stabled here who did jumping demonstrations.

The Alpha Omega team who hosted me. The lovely Kelly Carter who's Communications Director and Owner Michelle Baggott. I had the most magical time when I first met these ladies at their Annual Holiday Giving Party hosted at Alpha Omega.

Me and the lovely Kelly Carter, Communications Director for Alpha Omega. Thanks again for the lovely invite to this event Kelly, Robin and Michelle Baggett. I love it!

Event host Michelle Baggett and one of the riders who boards her horse at the stables.

Cheers to enjoying the beautiful Alpha Omega Wines throughout this event after breakfast of champions, Champagne and Caviar.

Guests also enjoyed the beautiful Tolosa Wines which are from the Edna Valley producing mostly Pinot Noir & Chardonnay. I was lucky to be able to visit Tolosa Winery a few days later which was incredible.

Guests enjoyed an extensive breakfast spread (in addition to the Caviar) during this event. The Alpha Omega team and Tolosa really do throw a fabulous party. Endless wine, delicious food, and beautiful cars!

The PANERAI watch team was also sharing some of their beautiful watches with guests at the event. I tried on a few and this blue-faced watch matched my blue bag and blue eyes so this was the favorite of the day! I think it looks lovely, don't you?

All smiles modeling the PANERAI watch!

Me and our lovely event hosts, Robin and Michelle Baggett!

After the champagne welcome, guests were guided out front to watch the Concours d'elegance car show driving by and enjoy the stunning Rolls-Royce automobiles which joined for the event.

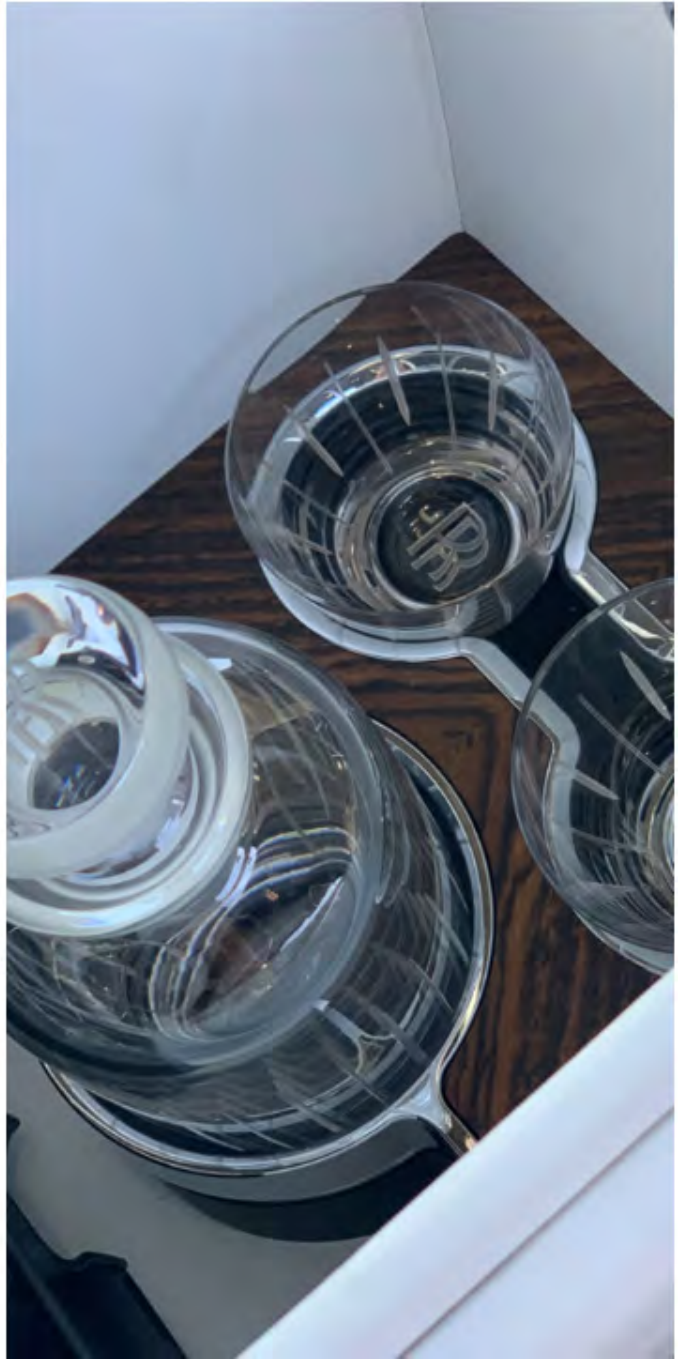

All smiles exploring the beautiful brand new Rolls-Royce at the event. I could get used to this every day!

After hearing about the stables and horses from Robin Baggett in Napa he told me if I made it down I had to ride so sure enough post-party fun that's what I did. OMG, I was in heaven. I've been horseback riding at camp and on vacation since I was a kid and this was the most amazing way to end an already perfect day! Thanks again to Robin and Michelle Baggett for hosting me and the entire team at the stables for making this ride possible. Read more about this on the blog soon!
