

One of the top overall lineups in Napa, Alpha Omega has created a dazzling array of world class wines with their new releases. Founded in 2006, Alpha Omega is a gorgeous, family-owned property that relies on the talented hands of superstar winemaker, Jean Hoefliger and consulting winemaker, Michel Rolland. The new releases all captured the terroir and intensity of these exciting and warm recent vintages. Alpha Omega is able to source from some of the storied Napa Valley vineyards including the famed To Kalon Vineyard and the Stagecoach Vineyard. I recently had the opportunity to visit this gorgeous winery and check out their new wines.

I think they consistently produce some of the best Chardonnay wines in Napa. The 2014 Alpha Omega ‘Reserve’ Chardonnay (WWB, 94) follows up the knockout ’13 bottling and shows tremendous richness and poise from this warm vintage.

Their Cabernet lineup was stellar, none more so than their 2015 Alpha Omega ‘Sunshine Vineyard’ Cabernet Sauvignon (WWB, 97) which was a sexy and scintillating wine that shows gorgeous tension, intensity and terroir.
